

Put yourself in the picture...

...growing pains? sports injury? or Bone Cancer?

Fact: Bone Cancer most commonly occurs in children, teenagers and young adults.

Fact: Bone Cancer symptoms include pain and swelling around the affected area and problems with movement.

Fact: Bone Cancer is often diagnosed by medical professionals as growing pains or a sports injury.

Fact: Bone Cancer can be identified by a plain X-ray.

Fact: Bone Cancer survival rates have not improved for 20 years.

act: PLEASE HELP TO MAKE THIS BETTER
call +44 (0) 113 262 1852

Bone Cancer Awareness Week: 20-27 June 2009

WWW.BCART.ORG.UK

BONE CANCER RESEARCH TRUST
REGISTERED CHARITY NUMBER 1113276