

The Bone Cancer Ball Volunteer Committee Member

Are you a passionate person who loves to plan and organise events?

The Bone Cancer Research Trust is looking for volunteers to join our Bone Cancer Ball Committee and help us organise our flagship fundraising and celebration event.

This is a unique opportunity to:

- plan an incredible event which raises vital funds to support our work, including funding bone cancer research and providing support to patients and their families;
- use your creativity to raise awareness and unite the bone cancer community;
- be part of an uplifting event and contribute to an unforgettable night!

We're looking for:

- enthusiastic individuals with plenty of energy and a positive attitude;
- team players who are willing to contribute their ideas and expertise to make this event unforgettable;
- people with connections to secure sponsorship, prizes, and help us sell tickets;
- passionate people willing to volunteer their time for a good cause.

You will have the opportunity to:

- create a memorable atmosphere of support and celebration;
- be part of the fight against primary bone cancer!

Time Commitment

- 1 hour per month for a virtual committee meeting (occasional in-person meetings are organised for those local to Leeds);
- time outside of meetings to promote the ball to your own networks, seek prize donations for the raffle and auctions, and contribute to discussions on the Ball Committee WhatsApp group.

Desirable Skills and Qualities, NOT essential

- experience in event planning and organisation;
- experience of fundraising and fundraising activities.
